

ST. MARTINS UNIVERSITY – LACEY WASHINGTON - 2006

This arena style installation was accomplished working directly with the administration and staff of St. Martins. Products included telescoping bleachers, and platforms with automatic folding chairs from INTERKAL.

The work was extremely complicated including recessed banks employing forward travel to position the bleacher banks at the front of balconies.

The installers took the extra time and expense to completely protect the new floor during the installation process.